PUJAS for the DECEASED Dedicated by the Monks of PULLAHARI MONASTERY

Tel: +977 (1) 6201550; Email: pullahari@jamgonkongtrul.org; Website: www.jamgonkongtrul.org

Information required: (1) Name of the Deceased (2) Date of death (3) Photo (if convenient)

“Phowa” is performed within 24 hours of death, preferably before the body is touched and in the presence of the corpse. Only lamas who have successfully completed the traditional three-year retreat can perform this practice. A lama who is particularly skilful is needed if a “Phowa” is conducted away from the corpse.

Within 49 days from the date of demise, it is good to dedicate merits from prayers and virtuous deeds to help and benefit the deceased’s journey to the next life. The best way is through dedicating Chang Chog (Tib: byang chog) pujas, Aspiration Prayers (Tib: sMon Lam), and offerings to the monastery and to the sangha of monks and nuns.
